ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

The Republicans of Rock county are becoming fairly organized for the campaign. Appointments have already been made for a number of speakers on the 26th of the present month, including the engagement of Hon. Charles G. Williams, at Clinton. The organization will extend to every town and school district. Public speakers will address the people on the real issues in this political fight, and the proper documents from which voters can learn the truth, will be thoroughly distributed. Other counties in the State should also organize for the conflict, and use not only their efforts to arouse the people to an appreciation of the importance of sustaining the public credit and in securing an honest greenback. On these questions there should be no difference of opinion. Parties should not be divided on them. Men should not differ, regardless of party affiliations, when the interest of every man-laborer as well as capitalist—and the general prosperity of the country are involved. Every man in Rock county who hopes to be rewarded for his toil, who desires to receive a currency for the products of his farm or the labor of his hands, which shall not cheat him, should support an honest currency—defend the greenbacks in their normal condition, and demand that they shall be maintained as good as gold, and shall be as unchangeable in their value. On these questions there should be no controversy, and Democrats as well as Republicans should not hesitate, on which side of the question to stand.

The Democratic State Convention which met at Worcester, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, was a truly remarkable affair, and serves to illustrate to what extremes some unprincipled politicians will go for power and place. Benj. F. Butler, once a Democrat, who voted 57 times in the Charleston Convention for Jeff. Davis for President, afterwards a Republican, and now a so-called Greenbacker and a labor agitator, is one of the most dangerous and unprincipled men in the political arena. He is any thing for place and money. Whichever party feeds him best, get his influence. He is now in the Greenback party, and not only that, but he has gone so far as to demand the nomination for Governor at the hands of the Democracy. He not only did this, but he went so far as to attempt to compel the Convention to give him the nomination. For this purpose, Mr. Butler caused a mob to assemble at Worcester, on Tuesday when the Democratic Convention was to be held. He also bought up the hotel rooms, the rooms in the houses of his friends, all the public halls in Worcester, so as to make it impossible for the Anti-Butler Democrats to either rest at night or assemble in a hall in day time. The Convention assembled, but it was so moblike in character, and the State Committee fearing an out-break among the desperate Butler men which probably might result in riot and bloodshed, decided to postpone the Convention until the 25th of the month when it will be held at Faneuil hall, Boston. The better element in the Democratic party in Massachusetts, is confident that party can now, after Butler has shown his hand, "go before the people with a movement which will crush Butler." It will be doing American politics a good service to overwhelmingly defeat the bosom friend of Dennis Kearney.

A nation that has in thirteen years paid a billion dollars on the principal of its debt; that has reduced its annual interest from 151 millions to 95 millions; that has raised the value of paper money from 38 cents to 100 cents on the dollar; that has reduced taxation from 440 millions a year to 240 millions; that has reduced the Government expenses over 120 millions a year; that has changed the balance of trade from 554 millions against it from 1869 to 1873, to over 488 millions in three years in its favor, is not paralyzed, neither are its people "reduced to beggary and want." This is what the United States has done since 1865. A nation that can do this, and grow in prosperity every year, is worthy the support and the confidence of an intelligent people.

"The Republican party invented greenbacks, and should remain their defender and champion," says a so-called Greenbacker. That is just what the Republicans are doing and are opposed by the Greenbackers and the Democrats. The Greenbackers want to rob the greenback of its character, to send it into the world a prostitute, "with the mark of Cain upon it," making it a vanguard and a fugitive on the earth." The sound money men are the only defenders of the greenback. They want to make it as good as the best gold dollar in the world, and they will do it in spite of opposition.

One of the principles of the so-called Greenback party is to burn the United States bonds—"very one of them"—says their political text book. Another is to pay no interest whatever, on the public debt, but repudiate the debt entirely. One of their leading tract, furnished the people, and published by the National Greenback party, says the bonds should be burned at once and those who bought them might whistle for the money and the interest.

Butler is the exponent of Greenback righteousness, and yet he is the most greedy and selfish man who ever entered public life—not excepting Tilden. He urged the salary grab bill with all his might, and defrauded the Government in receiving the outrageous and enormous fee in the Farragut prize-money award, and yet the so-called Greenbackers and Labor Reformers accept him as their champion.

The total gold value of the currency now in use in this country is 634 millions of

DEUSTER.

The Milwaukee Democrats Disatisfied With the Result of the Primary Elections.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 17.—There is a great amount of indignation to-day over the result of the Democratic caucuses last night, and the threats of Democrats in all parts of the city to "bolt" Deuster, if nominated, do not portend the same success for him at the polls which he received at the caucuses. It is a noticeable fact that the best class of Democrats turned out in large numbers at the caucuses, and the vote in favor of John Johnston's delegates was larger than the total vote usually cast at ward caucuses, even in exciting political times, and his voters were men of the most respectability and worth in the city. But the crowd of ignorant and purchasable voting material swamped the respectable vote, and carried all the wards but two for Deuster. In some cases a "snag judgment" was taken, a small squad getting inside a room and choosing delegates by an eye and a vote, instead of opening the polls to receive votes, and keeping them open two hours according to usage and the terms of the calls under which the meetings were held. In all these cases the party successful through fraud is Deuster. It is not believed that Mr. Johnston will go into the convention at all, and Deuster will receive the nearly unanimous nomination without dispute.

THE PLAGUE.

The Renewed Warm Weather Increases the Virulence of the Disease.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Sept. 17.—The weather is very warm and clear; thermometer, 96. Deaths to-day, 22; new cases, about 60. Among the deaths is Charles M. Hogue, clerk in the postoffice. The cold weather of last week caused everyone to feel more hopeful, but the warm weather of the past few days has again reduced them to a gloomy state, and a smiling face is seldom seen. All hope for a rain to bring a change in the temperature, and, probably, a killing frost.

Bishop Elden is reported convalescent, but he is very weak.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 17.—The situation remains unchanged so far as the number of deaths is concerned. The official report of the Board of Health will show ninety six deaths, but this is not complete owing to the undertakers being unable to bury the dead fast enough. In many instances coffins are purchased by the living members of a family, who carry to the cemetery the remains of their dear departed in such conveyances as can be procured. Such burials are numerous, and are not included in the official report of the Board of Health. Scarcely a day passes but what two or three of the volunteer physicians who have come to aid the dying and distressed of the plague stricken city are stricken down. Since Saturday night the following physicians have paid with their lives their endeavors to relieve the sick: J. E. Renner, Indianapolis; P. C. Nugent, St. Louis; T. H. McGregor, Tupelo, Miss.; J. L. Bond, Brownsville, Tennessee; J. S. Bankson, Stevenson, Alabama; B. J. Hicks, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; T. W. Menace, Nashville; L. D. Harlan, Hot Springs.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 17.—Deaths, sixty-two; new cases, 225—of which 122 occurred prior to the 13th.

The Rev. Dr. Matney, pastor of the Cathedral Street Church, has the fever. H. W. Ferguson, operator at Post Eads, is reported very low. J. A. Shawhan died to-day.

The death list the past three days, includes fifty-nine children under 7 years. From noon to 6 p. m., nineteen deaths and 148 new cases are reported, of which 100 were prior to September 14th.

BUTLERISM.

The General's Opinion of Himself as Told by the New York Sun.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Sun says: "When General Butler was last in this city he said to a lawyer that, if the Greenback ticket received 25,000 votes in Maine his election as Governor of Massachusetts was beyond doubt. He was then waiting anxiously for the Maine election, and, as his calculation of the Greenback vote was exceeded, his satisfaction as to his coming election is deemed complete. Speaking of Peter Cooper's race for President in 1876, he said: 'Had I been in Peter Cooper's place, I would to-day be President of the United States, for I should have devoted my energies to holding the balance of power in the electoral college. I would have been the object of a compromise, and thus have become President.' General Butler intimates that this would be his plan in 1880, when, he said, the contest was going to be a close one. If, however, he failed in this movement, he was ready to retire from politics, for he had grown tired of it."

ODD FELLOWSHIP.

Session of the Grand Lodge of the United States.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 17.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows to-day elected John A. Harmon, of California, Grand Sire, and Mr. Glenn, of Georgia, Deputy Grand Sire. Other officers were re-elected. The amendment changing the title of the supreme body from "Grand Lodge of the United States" to that of "Grand Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows" was adopted by a two-thirds vote. This action gives great satisfaction to members from foreign jurisdictions.

A LITTLE TALK.

The National Debt, National Banks and the Taxes.

From the Bangor (Me.) Whig.

A very intelligent and highly esteemed citizen, who has always been a Republican and worth at least $5,000, called on me last week, and he seemed inclined to advocate the Greenback doctrine.

I asked him to state to me fully and frankly his complaints and the reasons for joining hands with those whom he, as a Republican, had opposed these twenty years, and if they were good and sufficient I would join the Greenback party too.

He said he would, and began:

"The great burden of the national debt upon the people; it is crushing their very life out."

In reply to his first complaint, I said: "How much money has gone from your pocket during the last twelve months into the National Treasury more than you paid twelve months before the war?"

He hesitated, and then replied that he has never figured it closely.

"Well," said I, "let us figure it. You use salt, sugar and molasses, of course?"

"Yes," he replied, "and coffee and tea, but there was always an import duty on those articles ever since we were a Government, and it is no higher now, in fact, not so high, as before the war, because tea and coffee have been admitted free of duty since the war. I don't complain of that."

"Well," said I, "the only other articles upon which the Government has fixed a tax are whisky, tobacco, bank checks, patent and perfumed medicines and matches. Do you use any of these?"

"No," he replied, "only matches; from twenty-five to fifty bunches a year, and the duty is only a cent a bunch."

"Then," I replied, "you pay, directly and indirectly, not exceeding fifty cents a year to the National Government. Do you think that a sufficient cause of complaint for us to abandon our principles for which we have contended for so twenty years?"

"No," he said. "But are you sure that it is all pay to the Government? 50 cents National Committee, and the Convention will be called this week to nominate a candidate in his place. The fact is sincerely regretted, as Mr. Grimmer is a strong candidate, and would have pulled a heavy vote."

CAN'T RUN.

George Grimmer's Disqualifications for a Seat in Congress.

Oshkosh, Sept. 17.—It has transpired to-day that George Grimmer, of Kewaunee, Republican candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, is ineligible by reason of a constitutional disqualification. The law requires of Representatives seven years' citizenship. Mr. Grimmer received his full citizenship in the Winnebago County Circuit Court in 1876, and consequently could not serve as Congressman if elected. The matter is now in the hands of the Congressional Committee, and the Convention will be called this week to nominate a candidate in his place. The fact is sincerely regretted, as Mr. Grimmer is a strong candidate, and would have pulled a heavy vote.
